ORDINANCE NO. 78.

Entitled "An Ordinance Relating to Places Where Spirituous, Malt, or Fermented Liquors or Wines, or Any Intoxicating Liquors, May, Under Certain Restrictions, Be Sold, Served, Furnished or Given Away in the City of Lodi; Providing for a License Tax Thereon, and For the Time and Manner of Collecting the Same; Forbidding and Making Unlawful the Opening, Keeping, Conducting or Carrying On of Any Places Where Such Liquors Are Sold, Served, Furnished or Given Away, and the Sale, Serving, Furnishing or Giving Away of Such Liquors, Except at the Places, in the Manner, Upon the Conditions, and Under the Restrictions Provided Herein; Providing Penalties For the Violation of the Terms of This Ordinance; and For the Recovery of Such Penalties; and Repealing All Ordinances or Parts of Ordinances in Conflict Herewith," having been introduced on May 20, 1914, was read and motion of Trustee Deaver, seconded by Trustee Folendorf, was adopted by the following vote: Ayes-Black, Deaver, Keeney, Folendorf, Hale. Noes-None. Absent-None.

City Engineer Barzellotti reported that several large trees would interfere with proposed improvements on East Pine by being too near the curb line, and after an informal discussion of the matter it was decided that Superintendent Henning and the Street Committee should interview property owners as to the best manner of rectifying the trouble. The Board adjourned.

Attest:

City Clerk.
